Thoughts on the Eucharist as central to our Catholic Faith: Father Tom

As we mark this annual Catechetical Sunday, we pause to reflect on the meaning of the sharing of our faith and the passing on of our Tradition as Catholics. Nothing centers who we are as Catholics as beautifully as our belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. We are, in fact, a Eucharistic people first and foremost. This gives meaning to our Catholic identity and focus to our Catholic practices. Nothing exemplifies this more than the celebration of the Eucharist, the "Holy Sacrifice of the Mass." We believe literally in the words of Jesus himself, "Do this in memory of me." We believe that in so doing, we are making him truly and not just symbolically present. Bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ and we "take and eat," and we "take and drink" in remembrance of him. This is the awesome and transformative gift that Jesus himself gave to us at the Last Supper which was consummated on the cross and completed in the Resurrection. He is always and ever present with us in so many ways but most perfectly in the Eucharist, the presence of the Risen Christ, unbounded by space and time. His once and for all sacrifice transcends all space and time. The sacrifice is truly present in the Mass and we join ourselves to Christ in offering the sacrifice of our salvation. This Catechetical Sunday recalls this unique and unchanging belief of the Church for over two thousand years. It is the most authentic and central teaching of our faith. We today celebrate this same Eucharist as we celebrate the call and the sending forth to proclaim the Good News and to teach as Jesus did. This is our task and challenge as we renew our own faith and as we pass on and share our faith with our young.

Implications for the New Roman Missal:

As we transition to the New Roman Missal, we will experience a translation of the Missal which is more richly and theologically developed. It does, in fact, better reflect the rich sacrificial language of the Mass in the Roman Missal and more poetically express the cadences of our formal liturgical prayer. The words that we use do shape the way that we come to understand, "Do this in memory of me." The New Missal is an expression of the authentic liturgical tradition of the Catholic faith in the central act of our worship, "the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass." It more clearly draws from the scriptural tradition that is expressed in the very words themselves and helps us to once again appreciate the central role that the Scriptures play in our Catholic Faith and Catholic Tradition. We are a "people of the Book," and this is reflected not only in the Liturgy of the Word but also in the many prayers and responses that are so essential a part of the Mass. We remember in words that evoke the Jewish, Greek, and Roman traditions of our faith expression, even as we strive to express them in our own English language and contemporary cultural context. This we will do with a more classic language and poetic style, even as we reframe the images that shape our prayer and liturgical life and how we understand the underlying theological concepts which frame our Catholic faith and beliefs. This is an opportunity to reflect on our beliefs and practices and to deepen in our understanding of these beliefs and practices and truly to renew our faith and its expression in this day and time steeped in the belief in the Eucharist and those words, "Do this in memory of me."

The Scriptures of the Day at a Glance:

First Reading:Isaiah 55: 6-9 ~ Seek the Lord while he may be found. God's ways and thoughts are above our own.

Second Reading: Philippians 1: 20c-24 ~ Saint Paul reflects that to live with Christ and to die is to gain.

The Gospel: Matthew 20: 1-16a ~ The last will be first and the first will be last.

On this Catechetical Sunday, we reflect on both seeking the Lord and walking humbly with God. Our call is to embrace the ways of God, which are not our own and to serve in God's name both sharing the faith and seeking to live in Christ. We are called both to strive to live the faith, share that faith humbly as a gift and not something that we deserve or earn, and to conduct ourselves in a way worthy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Catechetical Sunday:

Today, we commission both our staff, catechists and assistants in our Faith Formation Program and the staff and teachers in our school. Together we are all commissioned "to teach as Jesus did," and to "go forth and proclaim the Good News." We do this most especially with and for our young, as we support collectively, you the parents and first teachers in the faith. May the Spirit guide us under the patronage of Saint Pius X as we mark this "Year of Renewal ~ To Restore All Things in Christ. "

Ministry Musings

Dedication: We thank Josh Reznicek and all those who assisted him in his special Eagle Scout Project. Josh came forward when I requested a new and special place for our flagpole and he entered the process for attaining the status of Eagle Scout. This has allowed us to create a special area for the flags (American and POW). We blessed the new area and raised two new flags last Sunday on the Tenth Anniversary of September 11. We will further develop the area which is now dedicated to all our military, both the past and present members. A formal dedication with a plaque will follow in the near future. Thanks to all who were involved in or supported the project. We will have their names in a future bulletin. Congratulations Josh!

Catechetical Sunday: This weekend we mark Catechetical Sunday, "Do this in memory of me." We will have a commissioning ceremony for all catechists, teachers, and their assistants at the 11:00 am Mass this weekend. Thank you to all those dedicated to sharing the faith, especially with our young! Thank you also to those assisting with RCIA and Adult Faith Formation.

New Roman Missal: We had our first demonstration Mass with the new Roman Missal and music designed to accompany the new texts. We will have more opportunities to experience this change in the near future. We will also have a special Mass with our school staff. The Bible Timeline series on the New Roman Missal is also being presented. You can check the bulletin for details. We are working to introduce the Mass parts at the weekend Masses. We have begun the Gloria and additional parts are planned. We also have the pew cards to assist you as the texts change. These are already in the pews. We will also be working with our school and Faith Formation children. We will have new Mass books for the little ones as they become available.

Youth and Family Mass: Next Sunday, we will celebrate our new Youth and Family Mass at 11:00 am. Our Praise Choir leads us in praise and worship at this Mass. We will have our young people carry out the various ministries including Proclaimers of the Word, Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, music ministry, and ushers and greeters. We will commission new Extraordinary Ministers from our youth group at this Mass. This is part of our "Pride in Pius" and our Year of Renewal.

Sanctuary: We will soon begin work on the new sanctuary. The plans have been approved and we are working on the time table near the end of September. We will keep you posted.

Fall Fest: Check out the website for details on our newly expanded Fall Fest Weekend and Polka Mass, the weekend of October 7-9. Tickets are now on sale. We are excited about this special part of our "Pride in Pius" and community building here at Saint Pius X.

Thank you: For your many kind comments on our September 11 Masses and Special Remembrance. Thanks to all who assisted and to the Scouts for presenting the flag at each Mass as we joined in the Pledge and patriotic hymn. Remember in your prayers all those affected so deeply by this tragedy which took so many lives and affected so many personally. God bless us! God Bless America!

+Peace in Christ and his Spirit,

Fr Tom

Deacon Speakin'

In today's first reading we hear Isaiah tell us to "Let the scoundrel forsake his way, and the wicked his thoughts; let him turn to the Lord for mercy, to our God who is generous…" The 'scoundrel' and the 'wicked' are those of us who have drifted away from trusting God for everything in our lives. When we stop trusting God, we start trusting ourselves. And that is where the problem begins. We, as sinful human beings, do not have the insight that God has of the world. He designed it. He created us, and as Isaiah further tells us, "For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord." Our ways, if not consistent with, and subject to what God wants from us, are going to take us into areas we don't want to go, into problems we don't want to have, into pain we don't want to bear, and into sorrows we would rather not suffer. Just look at all of the trouble we are experiencing as a nation. Unemployment, financial mismanagement, terrorism, unending war, natural disasters, and a lot of other challenges all seem, to me, to be intensifying. Is it coincidence that our beloved country is, at the same time, turning its back on God and intensifying its divorce from following and trusting the God who gave us this wonderful land? God is not punishing us as a nation. He does not do that. We are making the choice on our own, to go down the path to destruction. God loves us and respects our free will. We know what we ought to be doing, but seem to be choosing the opposite. Our actions have consequences, both good and evil, so we should not be surprised when our evil choices bring evil consequences. The good news is that our God is generous in forgiving. If we turn from our sin and run into His arms, He will forgive us and restore us. Let's think about doing that. Let us think about turning from our sins, tell God we are sorry and ask Him to forgive us both individually and as a nation. Who knows, we may even get a full day's wage, for an hour of work. God is good! And the Lord is near to all who call upon him.

….CAN'T BE BOTH

The pro-choice ( pro-abortion) advocate often tries to silent the pro-choice male by saying "You can't get pregnant, so leave the abortion issue to women." Their reasoning is flawed. First, arguments do not have genders, people do. The pro-life woman will usually give the same arguments as a pro-life man. Second, if men cannot speak on the abortion issue, Roe. V. Wade, the Supreme Court decision legalizing abortion, should be overturned since there were 9 men on that court. The same group should call for the dismissal of the male lawyers working for Planned Parenthood as well as the American Civil Liberties Union. What the pro-choice advocate really means is "No man can speak on abortion unless he agrees with us." The battle against truth cannot be sustained.

DISCOVER THE RICHES OF

THE MASS

A Biblical Walk Through the Mass

An important and exciting series of changes are taking place in every Catholic church across the United States. The translation of the Mass, which we have said for over 40 years is changing beginning this Advent. Some of the words of our responses are new, the Eucharistic prayers have changed and the Gloria is new. Our parish will be running a study program called A Biblical Walk Through the Mass. This study is not meant to address all the changes but to understand why we say what we say and do what we do during the Liturgy. If you are curious, come join us! You will go deep into the Scriptural roots of the Mass, and see the beauty and riches unfold before your eyes like never before.

We will be offering two sessions of A Biblical Walk Through the Mass this fall. Each session is five weeks total. The first session will run on Sundays, October 16, 23, 30, November 6, 13 from 10:45 AM – 12:15 PM in the St. Pius X School Library. The second session will be held on Thursdays, October 20, 27, November 3, 10, 17 from 7:00-8:30 PM.

Registration will take place in the Shimanek Hall after all Masses the weekends of September 17/18, 24/25 and October 1, or drop the form below at the Parish Office, with your payment . Seating for this study will be limited so sign up as soon as possible. Cost of materials including a study guide and A Biblical Walk Through the Mass by Dr. Edward Sri is $20. Checks should be made payable to St. Pius X Church.

Any questions about A Biblical Walk Through the Mass should be directed to Kelly Reznicek at KellyRez@comcast.net or 630-629-5954.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

MATTHEW
The King and His Kingdom
Week of Sept. 18 – Session 18
Marriage: A Demonstration of God's Love

Readings: Matthew 19; Ephesians 5:31-32; Genesis 2:20-24; Malachi 2:13-16; Exodus 20:1-17; Catechism 1602-1617

The narrative section of Matthew's fifth book begins with Jesus moving south from Galilee to Judea beyond the Jordan. There the Pharisees test him with a question about divorce designed to trap him into offending Herod Antipas. Jesus avoids the trap and turns it on the Pharisees, exposing the hardness of their hearts and asserting that his authority to proclaim law is greater than that of Moses. These events lead up to Jesus' announcement of the end of the old kingdom and the judgment he will pronounce on Jerusalem.

Rallying for the Run-a-thon!

Students attended their first "pep rally" of the school year to get fired up and ready to "dash for cash" at the 2011 Run-a-thon Fundraiser which was held this past Friday, (September 16th) at the school. Last year's fundraiser raised over $15,000 toward the school's operating budget. The annual Run-a-thon is uniquely the one fundraiser where the students alone are able to participate and help raise money for their school.

During the rally, Principal Dan Flaherty offered the students a crazy sock/hat day once the $12,000 mark is met. He also vowed to wear a crazy wig to school should the students raise over $15,000. And, to add to the excitement, music teacher, Mr. Velat agreed to shave his head if a goal of $18,000 is met.

The children were very enthusiastic about meeting the challenges and are anxiously awaiting the final totals.

Their Very Own Street Sign!

Two lucky sisters are the recipients of their own personal street sign outside the school Social Center. The sign was an item at the 2011 auction, and generously donated by parishioner and Village President, Bill Mueller, and the Village of Lombard. The winning family was allowed to personalize their sign which will be displayed at the school for the entire school year.

DIRECCIÓN

Isaías nos dice algo que ya sabemos, pero que parecemos olvidar de tanto en tanto. Nos dice, en esencia, que Dios es Dios y nosotros no lo somos. Cuando estamos confundidos, llenos de problemas y no podemos solucionarlo todo, tal vez sea sabio recordar a Isaías (alguien que está más en la sintonía divina que nosotros) hablando en nombre del Señor y explicando que Dios se mueve de maneras que ni siquiera podemos imaginar.

En comparación, san Pablo lo ha resuelto todo. Casi todo. Cuando menos entiende su llamado en esta vida: dar gloria a Cristo en todo lo que hace. Esto debería marcar el rumbo para nosotros. Jesús también nos marca el camino, explicándonos una vez más en la parábola de los viñadores que los últimos serán los primeros, y que los primeros serán los últimos.

Preparing for the New Translation of the Mass

New Words in the Eucharistic Prayer

On the First Sunday of Advent, November 27, 2011, Catholic parishes in the United States will begin praying the texts of the Mass using a new English translation of The Roman Missal. This week, we continue our survey of some of the changes in the words and phrases that we will pray.

In the Eucharistic Prayer, there are new translations of the people's parts at two points: the dialogue that begins the prayer, and the acclamations that we sing after the elevations of bread and chalice.

The dialogue (called the Preface Dialogue) echoes those from the beginning of Mass and before the Gospel: "The Lord be with you." "And with your spirit." Our final response, after the priest says, "Let us give thanks to the Lord our God," will be "It is right and just." In a way, this response completes the priest's statement.

Two of the new Memorial Acclamation translations are quite similar to ones we have been using. The third option, "Save us, Savior of the world, / for by your Cross and Resurrection / you have set us free," is a new rendering of the acclamation "Lord, by your cross and resurrection . . . "
