Navajo Mission

From June 10 through June 23, eighteen people on the Navajo Mission went to Chinle, AZ outside of Canyon de Chelly on the Navajo Nation to reunite with old friends and make new friends by assisting those who need help with home repairs and construction. Joining this group were three St. Pius X parishioners – Maria Torres, Janet Lissak, and Deacon Larry Lissak. Sounds wonderful, until we got to the second week and the over 100°F temperature. Just walking across Our Lady of Fatima's parking lot to get a tool you forgot was a challenge. What kept us going was the welcome the parishioners gave us.
This was the year we had to power wash and stain the log Church and meeting Hogan. We also spray sealed the shake roof on the old Church which is on the National Registry. Ask Janet about how to chink a Hogan, just in case you find yourself needing to chink something.

In the early years, 2002-2004, the diocesan group worked at St. Michael Indian School near Window Rock, AZ. The school was founded by St. Katherine Drexel. This year we returned for two days. Come September there will be only one sister on campus. Our project was to start preparing an area for her future living quarters.

The parish runs a large Food Bank. People stand in line in the heat for hours. The Food Bank needed two new strong wagons to assist the people in bringing their groceries to their vehicles. Our CCW provided the funds for these wagons. With Maria reading the directions, Janet and the other ladies assembled these wagons.

At his farm, our friend Rydell treated us to a picnic dinner of brats, steaks, corn on the cob, hamburgers, and fry bread all cooked on heated coals. Later, the parish community treated us to dinner with a variety of foods.

On June 11, the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, the Navajo Choir sang parts of the Mass in Navajo. Before Mass all were blessed during the Navajo Four Directions Blessing. In fact, just before we left for home, Sr. Theresa, herself a Navajo, performed the Navajo Blessing with burning sage on each of us.

Why not join the thirteen St. Pius X parishioners who have gone on past Navajo Missions? Information nights will be held in January 2018 for next year's June Mission. Check the December and January bulletins.

REFLEXION

1. El Sagrado Deber de la Hospitalidad

1.1 En la cultura del Antiguo Testamento, y en general, en todo el mundo antiguo, se consideraba que la hospitalidad era un deber sagrado. De un modo un poco abstracto y sin contexto queda esto en el enunciado de una de las obras de misericordia corporales: "dar posada al peregrino."

1.2 En aquel mundo antiguo era deber acoger porque el que no es acogido queda condenado a muerte. La hostilidad del desierto no perdonaría a un peregrino rechazado. No recibirlo, pues, es matarlo. Dígase otro tanto de otras vías y lugares en que los desplazados o emigrantes no tienen otra cosa sino la compasión de los que encuentren por el camino.

2. Hospitalidad para Hoy

2.1 A veces nos preguntamos cómo se puede practicar hoy esta hospitalidad. Por una parte, y por lo menos en muchos países y ciudades, el menesteroso puede contar con algún tipo de soporte mínimo, a lo menos algo que le impida morir de sed, hambre o frío.

2.2 Por otra parte, las condiciones de muchos de los mendigos actuales es diferente de la de sus antecesores en tiempos bíblicos o en culturas distintas. Hay mendigos adictos a las drogas, alcohólicos irredentos, trastornados mentales, delincuentes en fuga, o simplemente gente que juega con la compasión de otros para buscar dinero u otras cosas. Estos temores, unidos al egoísmo e individualismo típicos de las ciudades, hacen que no encontremos caminos fáciles para la hospitalidad.

2.3 Hay cosas que pueden hacerse, sin embargo. En un país como Irlanda hay albergues para mendigos y hay personas que donan de su tiempo para ayudar a los que no tienen un techo, por ejemplo, sirviéndoles los alimentos. Lo hacen de manera voluntaria y caritativa, sin poner en peligro sus vidas ni sus propios hogares. En algunos lugares de Colombia han surgido iniciativas de dar algo de alimento a los habitantes de las calles. Puede parecer poco, dar simplemente un tazón de sopa caliente, pero para centenares de personas, ese es el único gesto de amor que reciben cada semana durante años.

2.4 Otro enfoque es ampliar lo que significa acoger. Decíamos que en los lugares y tiempos de los desiertos no recibir al peregrino equivalía a condenarlo a muerte. Otro tanto se puede decir desde el punto de vista emocional. Mucha gente tiene buena provisión de alimento y bebida, e incluso comodidades materiales, pero no tiene la sensación de importarle a nadie. Es sintomático que en la Europa de hoy muere ya más gente por suicidio que en accidentes. Esos que se arrojan al abrazo de la muerte quizá estuvieron esperando demasiado tiempo que alguien les diera un abrazo de vida.

3. Recibir a los Profetas

3.1 Tanto la primera lectura como el evangelio hacen énfasis en un punto adicional. No se habla sólo de hospitalidad sino de recibir "a un hombre de Dios," según la lectura del Segundo Libro de los Reyes, o recibir "a un profeta porque es profeta," según las palabras de Cristo en el evangelio.
3.2 Esa expresión que usa Nuestro Señor es particularmente significativa. Recibir al profeta "porque es profeta" es aceptar su profecía, es decir, es acoger al Dios que habla a través de un instrumento que en sí mismo es imperfecto. La hospitalidad aquí ya no es sólo caridad sino sobre todo fe: una fe que hace que, al recibir al mensajero de Dios, sea Dios mismos quien nos reciba.

Come and See Vocations Discernment Retreat

Catholic men between the ages of 18 and 45 are invited to a vocation discernment retreat at St. Procopius Abbey, Lisle, IL from Friday, July 28 (4 pm) through Sunday, July 30 (1 pm). The retreat is an excellent opportunity to discern God's calling while participating in the monastic life at St. Procopius Abbey. During the retreat there will be presentations given about the Benedictine monastic life, as well as opportunities for discussions and questions, silent prayer, reading, and reflection. Learn more about seeking God in community life according to the Rule of St. Benedict. Attendance is free, but space is limited. For more information or to reserve a spot, contact Fr. James Flint at vocations@procopius.org.
